Acknowledgements

I give my thanks to a man who changed my life forever. Thank you, Eddie for coming into my life to share with me amazing information that we are more than what we been taught in conventional life. That we are limitless spiritual beings who can manifest anything we wish, if we follow our joy. Thank you for waking me up from living in this Matrix and to the Truth of who we are. My children Austin, Druanna, Hunter & Autumn who are my loving angels! Because of my undying love for you, gives me the strength and courage to stand up for what I believe and to assist in raising consciousness of humanity for the next generation! My husband Darren Michael Wails who is my soul mate and the most wonderful man I've ever known. Thank you for your loving support and your unconditional love for me. My best friend April H., thank you for your compassion and your understanding. You are like a sister to me. I will never forget your kindness or the times when I really needed a friend. To my very good friend who is like a brother to me, Bryan K. Pollard promoter of club Therapy, Club 80's and Dark Wave Garden in San Diego, Ca. <http://www.klubs.com> I've learned a lot from you in promotion and music. Thank you for encouraging me to read in your clubs which brought me out into the public! Those were very exciting times which also gave me the courage to get out of my shell and expand upon my ability as a psychic.

Introduction

During my earlier years as a reader, I use to work in a Gothic nightclub in Hillcrest, CA known as Therapy, which was held in a dark building called The Flame. My good friend Bryan Pollard, the DJ and Promoter of that club encouraged me to do readings there. After reading several people, I discovered that providing them with useful information in decision making were not the only solution in achieving successful results. Although they listened and tried to follow the advice in dodging negativity and obstacles they still had other issues to deal with leaving them feeling out of control and playing the victim role. They had more questions after falling into the same pattern that they tried to leave previously.

Reading the many individuals in the club brought me to ask the question “If a person is presented with the possibilities that the message of the tarot offered couldn’t we also utilize this energy to magickly influence the outcome? Couldn’t we apply the desired cards to the reading to bring about the desired effect?” I realized the power of the tarot not only acted as a divinatory device giving guidance and insight of future events, but could also be used as a magick tool for self-discovery, enhancing one’s confidence in making a better decision and taking control of one’s situation.

Reading the tarot is used to receive advice and guidance we believe from our higher consciousness, angels, or spirits guides about our life. To help make sense of what brought us to the present moment and to see how our future will fold if we act accordingly with the messages that are given from the spiritual plane. We have discovered that using the tarot as focal points in achieving a desired outcome would benefit us as we take control of our future! Very similar to the Law of Attraction, when one applies energy and focus into something they wish to manifest utilizing creative visualization and their emotional triggers then release it to the universe, meaning let go of the intention, they will discover that what they put out there into the universe appears right before their eyes. Science such as quantum physics is now proving that our thoughts create our own reality due to the discovery that our universe is a huge hologram thanks to the worlds most imminent thinkers, University of London Physicists David Bohm and Stanford Neurophysiologist Karl Pribram. If you wish to explore more on this subject a great book to read is the “Holographic Universe” by Michael Talbot, and watch two popular movies such as “What the Bleep Do We Know”, and of course “The Secret”. This will help you to scientifically grasp the concept that our holographic minds are in the Microcosm and effect the external world which is our Macrocosm. Either way they all operate from inside the mind. With this knowledge, you then begin to perceive our universe in an entirely different way. You then realize that Matter is not solid, as once believed. Instead it is made up of ENERGY!! Remember that movie The Matrix? What did Morpheus say to Neo? He says:

“What is real? How do you define real? If you're talking about what you can feel, what you can smell, what you can taste and see, then real is simply electrical signals interpreted by your brain. The Matrix is everywhere. It is all around us. Even now, in this very room. You can see it when you look out your window or when you turn on your television. You can feel it when you go to work... when you go to church... when you pay your taxes. It is the world that has been pulled over your eyes to blind you from the truth. That you are a slave, Neo. Like everyone else you were born into bondage. Born into a prison that you cannot smell taste or touch. A prison for your mind.”
Are you ready to go further down the rabbit hole??

My Great Awakening

The next chapter will explain how my life changed during certain events that happened to me in my life. I'm sure for some of you who are gifted with psychic talents or are awake and aware may have similar stories for many of us are waking up and finding out that the world we live in is not what we believed it to be. I've been a practicing magickian since the age of sixteen (not counting my past lives lol) and I will tell you this. Nothing prepared me for what was about to happen to me to shape me into the woman that I am today. This book goes far beyond just a How to magick recipe book. Instead I share with you my life experience not only as a psychic reader, healer, but as a powerful magickian whose dedication to a spiritual way of life took her through several challenging paths in order to discover her own truth and reason for incarnating into this planet during this important time where most of humanity is crying out for freedom. A cry that's been going on for several thousand years from the corruption and imprisonment from an Elite class of beings who believe that they are more intelligent than most of humanity. A distinct group with a special DNA bloodline that is different from the 98%. You are also going to learn more about who you are as a sovereign being, source's limitless creation able to operate on many parallel realities. You are going to find out more about you and your mission is on this planet. You as a multidimensional being are so much more than what you were believed to be. Follow me in these next pages, and something within you will activate your DNA, to help you to remember who you are. You are already a Sovereign Magickian, now it is time to wake up and claim this magnificent power!

Chapter 1 My Great Awakening

I wish to take you on a journey beyond anything you've probably ever learned in your lifetime from school, your parents, or conventional history. Have you ever asked yourself deep questions such as who am I? Where do I come from? I feel totally out of place and feel like I don't belong here? As a young girl, I always felt very different, and stood out from everyone else. I knew that there was something more to this life than meets the eye, that I had a deeper mission than most. I didn't know exactly what, but I knew I didn't come to this planet by accident. That everything we've been taught are lies, through the media, our government, and our education system. I would like to give you a little background about me so you know who I am and where I am coming from and how I got here!

It all began when I was going through a traumatic separation with someone who was not awake and aware, and didn't believe in psychic ability, or life beyond death. My ex-boyfriend was very skeptical and was raised by a Christian family and didn't believe or ever experienced psychic phenomenon. He saw life as black and white, was an atheist and didn't believe in life after death. This was very difficult for me, as my abilities grew stronger throughout the years, especially after my Reiki Attunements. This enhanced my sensitivity so much that I began to feel energy from objects I'd pick up, as well as emotions from other people. I became a powerful empath. Before my Reiki attunements, I was just a tarot reader, who was good at interpreting the tarot cards using my intuition. This time something within me changed. I could feel how others felt about me, or how they were feeling. In other words, I could actually put myself in their shoes and feel their pain, their anxiety, or their joy. My ex-boyfriend couldn't understand this ability I had, and immediately labeled me as having schizophrenia disorder. He was afraid of this ability of mine because he knew that I was able to read him for who he truly was. He was not completely faithful to me, and I lived in major denial after a few women came up to me to expose him including one of his best friends. I refused to believe such a thing. Even though I suffered from major depression, panic attacks, and taking medicine to cover the pain, I finally gained the courage to confront this situation. By trusting in my feelings more, I then realized my potential as a psychic empath, where I can tap into someone's emotions and pick up their energies. Once I faced this power within me, my major depressions lessened, and my panic attacks disappeared. I was living with the problem all along. The greatest thing he ever did for me was threw me out of our house and flew me back home to California across country from North Carolina. Yes, I suffered greatly without seeing my two children whom I adored greatly, but I learned that I was changing into something more exciting. My abilities as a psychic did not go unrecognized for long, as I will discuss a little later in this chapter. I'd tap into others feelings, or the person they wish to know about. This ability began to feel like a curse more than a gift as it was very difficult for me to sit in a restaurant surrounded by so many people with their fluctuating emotions, I felt as though I was losing my mind!

Throughout the years after my separation I met many people who discovered that they had very powerful psychic abilities as well, where they were looked at by society as being mentally ill, or a freak. Some were remote viewers, mediums, clairvoyants, and those who channel. So, they felt ostracized and didn't know exactly how to cope with the world they grew up in. Many psychics found each other on the internet and joined groups of light workers,

My Great Awakening

Starseeds, and others who share the same experience to help them to cope with their new-found ability. Others, not so lucky. Due to the stress put upon them from family members, and those who are not awake to this potential, they would be labeled as psychotic. They would also end up in mental hospitals or on psychiatric drugs. Little do these accusers know that there is a powerful planetary shift happening to mother earth and us as a collective species. People are finding out that whatever powers that laid dormant for many years, are coming out into the open. Their becoming more receptive, sensitive to the changes, due to the energies of the planet, and frequencies. Thanks to the discovery of quantum physics that unites spirituality and science together we come to the realization that everything is energy, consciousness and that we are all one! If you ever read the book “Celestine Prophecy” by James Redfield where it explains that we are going to enter a time when there is going to be a major evolution of consciousness, a critical mass, of discovering the God within each of us. That there are no coincidences, instead they are synchronicities, meaning, everything happens for a reason, and there are no mistakes, instead there are only lessons. That the Mayan calendar ends on December 21 2012 marking a time of great transition of the old world in Pisces for 26,000 years. A time of illusion, false prophets, religions, and not seeing the whole picture of the truth, as we near the precession of the equinox marking the age of Aquarius. This is a time of uniqueness, independence, integrity, removing ourselves from authority figures who’ve controlled us for 13,000 years. We are now beginning to ask questions, look outside the box, breaking out into our own identity, self-expression, self-discovery, and expressing our truth. As the internet grows the world becomes smaller and we are free to express what we see or feel on popular media platforms such as YouTube, and Facebook. These became great hang outs for the bloggers, vloggers where they shared their experiences with others around the world. We are no longer captivated by the news, media, and the political arena because we feel very deeply that something is wrong. What we see on tv doesn't make sense as we see people living their perfect existence, yet we are suffering inside, feeling the void within us grow as we face everyday reality. Having to work a job we hate, to pay the bills, taxes, child support, mortgage, seeing people getting kicked out of their houses for not paying the ridiculously high mortgages, losing their jobs and living in tents in America. Could the Mayans be right?

My Great Awakening

In August, 2005, I worked as a Gothic Go-Go dancer at a gothic industrial club in San Diego, California as a way to make a living after my separation and being left with financially nothing. I met this very interesting and eccentric man whom changed my life forever. I never seen him before and he certainly wasn't any of the regulars. He was sitting by the stage watching me dance to one of my favorite tunes from VNV Nation, a gothic industrial band, "Kingdom", which held powerful messages in the lyrics and vibed with me and the emotional torment I've felt for a long time. He made a comment on the huge Celtic cross tattooed on my back and the eye of Horus behind my right shoulder. "I been there!" He said. "To the pyramids! I hurt my leg while walking up the stairs!" He shouted excitedly as if we had something in common. Suddenly I asked him, "Have you heard of the "Chariots of the Gods" by Eric Van Daniken?" I really don't remember why I asked him that because it was on a whole other topic regarding the existence of extraterrestrials. It was crazy! He replied, "Yes I have!!" And he laughed out loud as if I struck a major chord within him that connected us beyond this world. I told him to wait for me as I walked off the stage as my time was up. We then walked outside onto the back porch where we had our drinks and smoked our cigarettes as we weren't supposed to smoke inside anymore like the good ole days. We had the most amazing conversations that it felt as though time stood still. He asked me if I've read the book "The Celestine Prophecy" by James Redfield, which I did back in my early 20s. It was a life changing book about how we are able to move into a higher awareness, that coincidences were synchronicities, and following your intuition or hunches and signs that would appear out of nowhere as though the universe itself was speaking to you. It felt as though I found a long, lost family member. He introduced himself as Eddie. He told me he was the creator of the cars that run on air and how he tried to bring it into this country, USA but was going through a constant battle with the government in releasing it into the country. "Air is free and it would help so many people out in saving so much money and cleaning up the pollution we have in this country and the world". Eddie said. We would spend many nights after work until 3am talking about his project and his abuse by the powers that be keeping him from unleashing this technology. He spent a year living in a hotel driving around in a rent a car trying to get the government to release his money in the bank, which was millions of dollars! There were several clearances he had to go through such as an antiterrorist clearance, drug clearance, security clearance costing him thousands of dollars to touch his own money! This money was also going to people who were his employees and those who helped him with this project. He showed me a blueprint of the project he had been working on. He also introduced me to the people he was connected with, which were really big people such as the producer of the Da Vinci Code, as being one of them. I was in such awe and couldn't believe why this man would come to me with all of this information. Who was I anyway? I had nothing and didn't feel I was even worthy to even befriend this guy. I asked him, "Why are you telling me this?" and he replied, "Because you are here to do something very important. I don't know what exactly but the universe knows!!" Was this guy crazy? Or, did he really believe what he was telling me? Eddie believed that we came from somewhere else, not from this planet but from the stars. "You have no idea what potential you have! You are magnificent and can do anything you want!" We are a part of IT!" He would shout in his optimistic enthusiastic tone! I had no idea what he was talking about, but I was seriously glued to this guy and had to learn more information! I wanted to know everything he knew and who he was. Eddie's thinking was completely otherworldly, and when he spoke he would speak with such passion and conviction that he was on a mission to awaken humanity from a very deep sleep! One day after spending many weeks together like old ancient buddies, he called me and told me to come on over. It sounded urgent as I sensed a shift in his voice. After arriving at his place where he was temporarily staying at, he sat me down, telling me he needed to show me something. He picked up the phone and dialed a number. I heard a recording of a woman saying "The checking balance in your account is "500 Million Dollars!" My mouth dropped wide open. I was shocked. It was his bank account! I told him, "What the heck!" He looked at me in the face and said, "You see what I'm talking about?" That is my money and they won't let me touch it!!" He wanted to prove to me he wasn't full of BS that he was very wealthy. Turning to look at him with absolute amazement, I asked, "Who are you Eddie? Why are you telling me all of this? Who am I for you to be telling me all of this? I'm not rich, I'm nothing special! I'm just a dancer working at your local bar." He looked at me and laughed! "But baby!" You are very special and there is something about you that the universe wishes for us to connect. You are going to do something very important I'm telling you! We may not know exactly what now, but we met at this moment. The hotel I'm staying at now is right down from the club, and every day I'd drive pass that place with a feeling in my gut that I had to stop by there. I don't ever go to these clubs, as I'm so busy working, but for some reason, something told me to stop by and so I did. Then I meet you! There are things I need to share with you that will change your life, it is unbelievable what is going on right now!" He turned me on to these interesting gurus such as Alex Jones with www.infowars.com, David Icke's book "Children of the Matrix", who you would think were conspiracy theorists exposing the deception of the government, George Noory with Coast to Coast Am, a nightly radio show discussing several topics on the paranormal, conspiracy, and ETs. Then he introduced me to Sheldon Nidle's work who was a Contactee for the Galactic Federation of Light, also known as the Sirians, a race of extraterrestrials that were human, who are believed to be our ancestors. He showed me YouTube videos of these light ships in Guadalajara Mexico that lined up in formation. He'd say "There here baby there here! And they say that they are still trying to find the existence of extraterrestrials, ha ha ha!" Let me tell you, spending time with Eddie not only changed my life and how I perceived the world, but I felt like it was an endless adventure journeying into uncharted territory not knowing exactly what the future would bring. Each day I woke up excited each morning as the sun came up, getting ready for a new adventure. Life with Eddie was exciting and I learned so much more about myself. I felt like I was in the movies. I couldn't get enough and had to be around him 24/7! We hung around each other for a month and a half all August of 2005 until my adventure began when I flew to Hawaii on my 30th Birthday in September. I didn't want this exciting rollercoaster ride to end! He had such a big heart and was extremely eccentric, and was so excited for life that it was contagious!

My Great Awakening

My Great Awakening

My Great Awakening

He'd take me to La Jolla to look at very expensive cars, such as Bentley's, the Vanquish, and Rolls Royce. Before I knew how much was in his bank account, I'd look at him like he was nuts. I'd say to him, "How can you afford these cars?" He'd tell me, that doesn't matter! The How is not important. Lets just have fun and look at these beautiful cars. He had his eyes on the dark blue Vanquish. It was gorgeous and I never seen anything like it in my life. He told the salesman that is the car he will be picking up very soon! He believed in his heart and knew he'd be driving that Vanquish off the lot! As much as I enjoyed watching him with his excitement about life, I just couldn't understand what he was doing. It just didn't make sense to me. When he finally told me, he had all of this money, yet it was being held by the government I began to realize Eddie was telling me the truth. He came from a place where having millions of dollars was a normal part of life, just like most of us who are operating in the 99% are only use to having a couple thousands of dollars or a few hundred dollars here and there. Some of us even feel guilty even wanting to have that kind of money or else someone else out in the world suffers. So, my perception was so much different from a millionaire's point of view. He did remind me a lot of my father, although he was never a millionaire, but he made more money then even a medical doctor did. He owned a tailor shop in Manhattan Beach, California designing custom made suits alterations and had a Recording Studio on the side. My father had the same optimistic views as Eddie. My father bought many beautiful homes so we had a pretty good life. The only issue my father had was he was the sole owner of his business and only had a few employees working for him. He'd end up working tireless hours trying to get these alterations and custom-made suits done in time for the clients the following day or week. We hardly saw him throughout the week as he was working way too much that it also put a huge block on my parents' marriage. My mother on the other hand was very depressed and not happy with the way things were going. She was a housewife and didn't really have many ambitions, because her outlook on life was always so negative and she was in an unhappy marriage. She tried working as a real estate agent, but failed at it, and gave up. She tried interior decorating but never fell through with it. She seemed like she was never happy and would sleep a lot. Everything my father would want to do in life she always had to say something negative about it. So that's where my negative programming came from. One side of me was optimistic and I can do anything my heart desires and be anything I wish, the other side of me had these doubts about myself, some form of self-sabotage that went on in my mind as though life was too hard etc. One day Eddie and I were driving down the 8 freeway and I started up with this negative speech, that life sucks, nothing will ever work out for me, I'm doomed, I hate my life, I wish I was never born, and blah blah blah! All of a sudden Eddie immediately stopped me saying, "Watch your mouth, watch what you say, watch what you think or else you will attract exactly that! YOU REALLY NEED TO BE CAREFUL!" I looked at him like he had two heads and said, "What??? What are you talking about?" He said, "If you keep this up I am going to have to drop you off right now!" Your negative energy will bring about what you are speaking!! Change it immediately!" I was shocked, and totally did what he said. I shut my mouth and didn't say anything. He was Tunisian but lived his thirty years in New York so he had that tough guy attitude, which I thought was quite appealing. I respected his wishes and each time I was around him I was very careful what came out of my mouth. Does this sound familiar to you? If you've watched the Secret, it taught you that what you think about you bring about! That your thoughts create your reality! This movie came out a year later after I met Eddie. Yes, there were days I was falling apart from not being able to be with my children whom I love so dearly, and life seemed unbearable to live and even breathe at times that I would fall into deep depressions and didn't feel like living anymore. I remember Eddie one day telling me to see your kids right next to you, and hold that image everyday. I looked at him like he was nuts, and would start crying uncontrollably, "How can I think about them when every time I see their faces I feel so much pain!" I said angrily. I just didn't get it then, and wasn't ready to think positive. He was married before and had to leave his ex-wife and his daughter because there was way too much drama in the family so he knew what it felt like to be away from his child as well.

My Great Awakening

A month and a half later, on my birthday, I was given an invitation to go with a friend to Hawaii and I took him up on his offer as I always wanted to see Hawaii, that was a dream of mine since I was a child. Life wasn't going good for me and I was struggling day to day just to make a living, and suffered extreme burn out and felt I needed to escape. Eddie got too busy with his meetings that we stopped hanging out as much, and I felt like I really needed to find myself, I didn't know who I was anymore. It was such a painful time for me that I really didn't care if I lived or died. So, I flew to Hawaii to try to experience something worthwhile in my life, something that would put a smile on my face this one last time. We flew to Oahu, Hawaii and had the most amazing time ever! It was everything I dreamed of as a child, and it seemed that after meeting Eddie, everything I thought of that excited me, brought instant manifestations into my life. It opened doorways I never knew existed. Life began to show me great opportunities where less effort was needed. I was in my vortex, a world where most of my desires I've only dreamed about for years all came together for me! I couldn't understand why! But instead of me trying to logically think about it, I just decided to let go and go with the flow! Stop trying to control events in my life and allow it to happen. The old life that I knew was changing. I was no longer a housewife, or living with my parents, I truly became an independent woman wherever my thoughts and excitement led me doors opened up! I realized I had the power to be and do whatever I wished, and things came into my life easily. Including amazing people such as my Navy husband who I fell madly in love with. I put it out into the universe one night looking over the beautiful clear blue ocean in Hawaii. “I want to meet my soul mate, the man I’m really suppose to be with, that I will fall in love with. I want more children and have a real marriage with true and unconditional. Within three weeks I found him! After I flew back from Hawaii to meet with Eddie in San Francisco, I went with him to the bank where he finally received his money after waiting over a year. Things were looking good, but I knew that it was drawing near for him to fly back to Europe. He finally moved his money out of the country. The next day the bank called asking him to bring the money back as it needed more clearance to go through. He told them, “Oh well the money is gone!” We couldn’t believe just how bloodthirsty these banks were! We then drove down from San Francisco all the way down to San Diego listening to some great Industrial tunes. I was so happy and excited just being with him. He was like my best friend at the time. Driving down the winding road of route 1 in October, feeling the cool autumn air on my face, and driving through the beautiful eerie looking fog, life was great. I was getting tired of the tropical life in Hawaii where everyday was sunny, humid and rain would just pour out of nowhere. I was missing the change of seasons I felt in North Carolina and Virginia where I once lived, and San Francisco’s weather reminded me so much of it. Eddie finally drove me home so I could get ready for work the next day as I was in need to make more money of course.

My Great Awakening

The next day came and off to work I went. I didn't know that this particular day was going to be the day where it was also going to change my life. I actually didn't want to go into work. My stomach was feeling anxious, and I was burnt out from the whole dancing scene. But I went anyway. As I got ready for the stage my favorite song by VNV Nation "Kingdom" was playing. As I walked up on stage, there across the room starring back at me, was a very attractive man with his friends. He looked at me as if he was hypnotized. I continued to dance on, jumping on the pole doing my favorite athletic work out then! Yeah, I was in the best shape of my life! After I was done and out of breath, walking down the stage with my black stiletto boots dressed up like Betty Page with the jet black hair, bangs, and black vinyl wear, I walked over to him, to start a conversation, and we hit it off very well. I felt like I knew him already. We immediately held hands with our fingers interlacing with one another. It felt great. There was something about him that was so familiar, and I just knew he was the one at that time. To make a long story short, we moved to Washington State and we were married in three weeks after finding out we conceived our son, Hunter, then six months after he was born, I found out I was pregnant again with our daughter Autumn. We lived in Washington State for two and a half years. It was a great experience except for the gloomy weather 24/7, but it was a beautiful state and I liked it better than Southern California. My husband Jerami, at that time, was I felt at that time the love of my life. Since then my career in dancing ended, and I went back to being a professional psychic empathic tarot reader & NLP life coach on the side. There in Washington my psychometry and empathic abilities soared as I participated in parties touching objects that people would hand me, such as personal things, like their pictures, and jewelry. There were times when I thought about working for the police as a psychic investigator, but because of my sour taste for the law, I decided not to. Jerami came from a very religious Christian Pentecostal background, and was afraid of my abilities at first. But after spending many years with me he was impressed with my manifestation abilities. He saw me attract so many things without much effort that it opened him up to all the mysteries of what Eddie taught me. He was very skeptical at first, but then saw the many wonders and miracles that he never knew before. He became passionate about the existence of extraterrestrials and watched several videos by Alex Collier and Sheldan Nidle who were contactees.

My Great Awakening

Years later, we moved to San Diego where I launched my first YouTube channel back in August 2008 where I got recognized by another YouTuber out of Canada. His name was Brad Johnson who put my tarot reading video on one of his pages where he was getting 20,000 hits a day. It was about some ET race supposedly coming down to earth to save humanity with Blossom Goodchild, a channeler for these light beings known as the Federation of Light. Somehow I ended up on this guys website which was then connected with Coast To Coast am, George Noory's Myspace site! This happened back in September 2008. I was known all over the world and became a spiritual celebrity. I did videos on all sorts of topics from aliens, metaphysics, did psychic tarot Readings, talked about Sacred Geometry, the news, the H1N1 Virus, discussed conspiracy topics, and then sovereignty. On 2009 I got more into the sovereign movement and learned about being a secured creditor by another guru by the name of Winston Shroud. This got me started on the redemption path in reclaiming my birth certificate, and I become a Secure Creditor. My whole life changed that moment by doing what I loved to do, sharing information I've learned from key people, to help raise the consciousness of humanity and their awareness of what is truly going on in our planet today.

One day while I was cleaning up the kitchen, a video came up by David Childerly, who was an EFT expert from the UK, who teaches you to tap away your fears to help reprogram your subconscious mind. This time this video was different. He was talking about something completely different. It was about being a freeman on the land, a sovereign, that we been enslaved by the government using our birth certificate. He also mentioned what a Strawman was, which is the full capital letters of your name on your birth certificate and how the government uses that to control you. I was in total Awe! It was a major pinnacle point in my life which got me moving in the direction to be a Sovereign a free woman, someone who rightfully claims ownership of their soul, and lively hood. In the United States, the Constitution and Bill of Rights was founded upon the principles of the Magna Carta created in the year 1215 during the time with King George, a Ruthless king. It was a whole new world for me, which led me into meeting interesting people along the way. I got to meet a few Gurus in person, and later who knew how to free ourselves from the prison planet. Everything was confirmed to me of what was taught to me by Eddie. He told me, "You can never get ahead here, and that the government doesn't want you to succeed. That the very rich people at the top are in total control of us, and the government." He pointed out to me to read the book "Children of The Matrix" by David Icke where he believed these royal families were part reptilian or Draco. I had thousands of fans who knew all about David Icke and Alex Jones on Infowars.com. I then began to realize, that now I finally know what Eddie was trying to tell me all along. I AM HERE TO DO SOMETHING VERY IMPORTANT and here I am waking the herd up to who they really are, to their true potential. I befriended

My Great Awakening

Cory Herter who created Sacred Geometry prints to put underneath my bed and food to use it to activate the charge within the molecular level of the object. I still use these patterns today to cleanse and charge my food. They sent me a free box so I can experience it and broadcast them on YouTube. I was shocked to hear that his wife told me that I was a spiritual celebrity. I was shocked, because I'm looking at them as if they were big time celebrities as they were on MTV with Rob and Big talking about Sacred Geometry. Wow life was getting super exciting and otherworldly for me. It was a time of my Greatest Awakening ever. Soon another celebrity was drawn to me, this was Beau Manley of Metal Mulisha, the Ex-Games and Motor Cross. He was a Well-known dirt bike rider! His father Bob was a follower of mine for some time and called me out of the blue! We became very good friends. It was like life was throwing at me so much good fortune that I didn't have to try to bring it to me. It came naturally because I was doing what I loved to do. I was YouTube broadcasting, doing talk shows on Blogtalkradio.com and doing psychic readings at home. A year later after all of this magic was happening with me, I meet yet another mentor by the name of Jaguar shortly after I launched my first Ning Site called "SovereignWarriors.ning.com". It is still there by the way, growing every month with more members. My good friend Jaro is running the site now.

Yes, everything happens for a reason. Sometimes things might seem absolutely horrible when crap hits the fan, but just know that there is always a higher universe or intelligence looking out for us, and answers our every wish and every command. From the Law of Attraction, of manifesting good things and negativity, to meeting powerful people sharing me very important information, there is always a higher order. When you put it out there into the universe your emotions of how you feel, you magnify that 20,000 times and focus on what it is you wish to know. After my encounter with Eddie, with each thought, my emotions would trigger then manifestations would happen out of the blue. I needed to know more! It was if I was an addict. Because of this desire of wanting to know more, I attracted tons of information and certain people that came my way out of nowhere wanting to share with me their info. In order to know how to be free you have to know or remember who you are and where we come from! I now have my own radio show online called "Illuminating Visions" on www.freedomizerradio.com to share my theories and perception of current events, the global paradigm shift that is happening to us, and Gaia, psychic abilities, ascension and bringing awareness to the globe of the many truths that were never taught to us in school, such as ancient history of our true origins. Places we were never taught about such as Atlantis, Lemuria, Pleideans, Sirians, the prophecies of indigeneous tribes who were later mutilated by this power-hungry group.

Chapter 2 WHO ARE WE?

Before we can happily move onto the next chapters the most important question we need to ask is Who are we? Or “Where did we come from?” We were told by conventional history of the theory of evolution that we possibly came from monkeys, and the bible that we came from Adam and Eve. What ancient evidence has revealed is that there was a more civilized group of people that occupied this planet well before even the pyramids of Egypt were created. Supposedly civilization didn’t start in the Middle East as we once believed. According to Sheldan Nidle who is a contactee of the Sirians, says that the first civilization began in Lemuria a lost continent located on the South Pacific Ocean 100,000 years ago. These people were such an advanced race that they lived in harmony with the earth and their people. They ate mostly fresh vegan foods and their psychic ability was super advanced. They had an organ located on their forehead that helped them to tune into any dangerous animals that were near, according to Shirley Andrews book “Lemuria and Atlantis, Studying the Past to Survive the Future”. They were very creative, artistic and their bodies were of a lighter density than our bodies. What I mean by this is that they were not operating on the third dimension, which is a very heavy density that our bodies occupy. They operated in the 5th density where they were free to astral travel, manifest anything they wished very quickly. Had psychic abilities such as telepathy, telekinesis, clairvoyant, empathic, could move heavy objects with their minds, such as the 5 ton stones standing in certain sacred places such as Peru, Tonga, Egypt, England, and more. Recent discoveries prove that atom is not solid. Instead it is energy. Everything around us and inside of us is made up of energy, of frequencies, sounds, light, etc. Even our bones and our flesh is all energy. To read more on this I suggest you read David

My Great Awakening

Icke's book "Infinite Love is the Only Truth, Everything Else is Illusion". In this book David points out evidence that what we perceive is an illusion of our super holographic brain. The Elite knew this, including Napoleon Hill, Author of "Think and Grow Rich", and "The Science of Getting Rich". They knew that our thoughts shape our reality and that our brain is a radio receiver and transmitter projecting our feelings out into the universe. What we project we get. As mentioned earlier in this book, you become aware of the many possibilities surrounding you and what you can create. The Lemurians' knew this, as well as the Atlaneans', who were another group who fled from the destruction of Lemuria to Atlantis for their safety. Atlantis fell several thousand years later due to alchemical, powerful scientific technology of genetic manipulation and engineering of the human species and extraterrestrial genes which Michael Tsarion discusses in his book "Atlantis Alien Visitation and Genetic Manipulation". During the later years of Atlantis, a race known as the Annunaki, an extraterrestrial race from the star system of Draco colonized our planet earth. These are the designers of our banking system, our religions, our education, health care, and creators of money. Many of these stories were written in sacred texts such as the book of Enoch, The Bible's book of Ezekiel, the Sanskrit of the Vedas, the Popol Vu, Celtic and Norse folklore just to name a few. For your own research, I suggest you read Zechariah Sitchin's work, David Wilcock to learn truths about our human origins. A great video to start out with is from Sheldan Nidle's "Lemuria Fact or Fiction". This was the same video I was in during my journey to Oahu Hawaii. I had no idea he was recording a video on Lemuria when I showed up. One of my favorite books to read regarding the Sirians is "The New Sirian Revelations Galactic Prophecies for the Ascending Human Collective" by Patricia Cori. She is a Reknown author and channeler for the Sirian High Council and I also had the honor of interviewing her on my YouTube channel. She is an absolutely amazing woman with a big heart and such a gift in connecting with these higher interdimensional beings. The book tends to act as a DNA activator in itself. I found my ears ringing while reading the pages, and having strange experiences happen to me. I remember while reading a chapter, it freaked me out, as if I read that chapter already! Like did I sleep walk or something and read that chapter? Other people had similar experiences as well which makes you realize we must have entered some type of alternate reality. Please go visit her website at www.patriciacori.com and you will find all of her books there. These books are filled with powerful channeled information from the Sirian High Council themselves. If you really want to know the bigger picture of what is going on with our reality, who we are and where we come from, you don't need to look any further. She has several other books that will literally blow your mind. We also created a group on Facebook called The New Sirian Revelations Group so feel free to stop on by.

My Great Awakening

THE TRUTH YOU NEED TO KNOW RIGHT NOW!

We are all God/Goddess having a human experience. Remember this. You did not come here because you have a karmic debt to pay or come here to learn a lesson, you already got this! We were all programmed to believe we came back for punishment reasons and that is not true. We are amazing and as magickian Gods that we are, we need to own this power by knowing and acting on it. Say every day I AM GOD/GODDESS every morning when you wake up and you will feel love energy emanating from your center out through your body into the ethers. This energy comes from you! When you are able to remember and master this knowingness of who you are, you can create worlds. You are more than a Magickian. You are God/Goddess. According to Dolores Cannon's books Convolutated

My Great Awakening

Universe series, she mentions that many of our souls when we go under hypnosis some of us go back to experience source. I've experienced this myself and it was the most amazing loving feeling ever with no strings attached, just love. That was God/Source. Because we come from this we are that! We are the Great I AM we've all been waiting for. This is what's been intentionally hidden from us to keep searching who we are and who God is. The search is over. It's time to learn to be the God/Goddess you were meant to become and this book is going to help you to remember!

Chapter 3 The Pineal Gland

Have you heard of your third eye? It is the psychic center, your gateway to the spiritual cosmos and conduit to the other side. This third eye is also known as your Pineal Gland, located in the center of the brain and shaped as a pine cone. This powerful gland and capability has been kept secret for ages by the Elite, or Secret Societies. If everyone knew how to activate it, there would be no need for authority figures, domination, or money. According to David Wilcock's research on the pineal gland, he shared some amazing discoveries. There are paintings in the temples of Egypt of people laying down on their back with the pineal gland facing the opening of the top of the pyramid. What was the reason for this? They used this gland to astral travel to other planes of existence, and time traveling. Ancient cultures all over the world seem to have an obsession with the pineal gland such as the largest pinecone statue on earth is featured in the Vatican Square. If you check out the pope's hat, it's the shape of a pine cone or pineal gland. Certain Gods Egyptian and Greek seem to have a staff with a pinecone such as Osiris, and Dionysus. The reason why I bring up the importance of this gland is because in order to unlock your full potential, you need to understand why this gland has been kept a secret for so many years. Unfortunately, due to processed foods that big corporations like to feed us with fluoride, aspartame, white refined sugar, coco cola, sodas with high fructose corn syrup, these unhealthy chemicals are known to calcify the pineal gland causing major brain tumors. Once you remove yourself from these horrible chemicals you can focus on cleansing it with raw whole foods such as organic vegetables fruits and nuts. Yes, what you are is what you eat and in order to have a healthy powerful psychic body that can create worlds, you have to have a healthy channel. You can also check out MSM a substance

My Great Awakening

known to help decalcify the brain, and ormus. Please do your own research here, but I will suggest that you check out David Wolff's videos on the subject of ormus. I've been using it for five months and notice a significant difference and change within my psychic field. You may begin feeling a bit nauseous at first as the ormus or msm gets to work in detoxing your brain from many years of chemical abuse. Also look into eating more raw foods without eating too much cooked foods. Do you know we are the only species who cooks our own food? There is danger when eating too much cooked food, as anything being boiled at 120 F is destroyed leaving no nutrients to nourish the body. Live foods however can bring life to a weak malnourished body due to its high energy content, enzymes to break the foods and enhance your metabolism. Alkalized oxygen water is super important as our bodies are 90 to 98 percent water. The purer the water, the more powerful our manifestation skills can be. My mentor four years ago worked with me to enhance this skill by drinking out of an Iyashi cup filter filled with mineral rocks and scalar energy that gave me such an energetic boost that my whole body went through a major detox for a month and I lost 10 lbs. Let's go back to Masaru Emoto's discovery on how our emotions effect the molecular structure of water. Masaru Emoto, a Japanese scientist did experiments with water by adding it to a jar glass and infused it with these thoughts of love, peace, harmony, then anger, jealousy and hate. He labeled each of these jars the emotions which each jar contained. He discovered something amazing and ground breaking! He viewed a sample from each water jar and found that the molecules formed interesting crystalline structures. The jars that held the emotions of love, joy, peace, harmony etc, had the most beautiful shape that looked like snowflakes. The jars that held the negative emotions looked deformed distorted with no real shape. I found this to be an amazing discovery. This is proof that your thoughts create your reality, and can create how you feel as again, your body is made up of 90 to 98 percent of water. If your thoughts can do this to water, imagine what it can do to you! You may wish to do your own research and see what you can find. This same energy is carried out into the universe effecting your reality whether you are aware of it or not.

My Great Awakening

Life Changing Manifestation

When we put our intention into the universe and our channels are clear of a calcified toxic body, our body becomes pure water moving from a lower third density into a higher and lighter density freeing ourselves to create our dreams very quickly. I couldn't believe just how fast I manifested things out of thin air almost! I'll be talking about something and within two hours, things would begin to manifest. I remember one night hanging out with my brother and friend at Shakey's pizza and out of the blue I told them, "I want you to imagine a sea turtle! Just see the sea turtle swimming all nice through the Caribbean water." I told them that I want to show them proof that I had the power to manifest that sea turtle and so did they. Well 2 hours rolled by and my brother and I were in my house just chatting about other topics such as web design and the Yucatan, when out of the blue on TV on the news showed a Lava headed sea turtle that was rescued in Florida! We couldn't believe it! I got up off the couch and called my mentor Jaguar at the time, with a high-pitched voice as if I were screaming, I manifested a sea turtle in two hours!!! How could this be??? How can this happen? The fact is ladies and gentlemen, it happened and I'm not pulling your leg either. This is the power that is in each and every one of us. We have the power to transform our life into whatever we decide to make of it. With much practice, it took me about eight to nine months to really get into what Abraham Hicks explained it as being "In the Vortex". Esther Hicks

My Great Awakening

is another Renowned channeler for these intelligent beings known as Abraham. They communicate through her and talk about how to manifest the life you wish by changing the way you think, which in turn shifts your emotions. They call this the Law of Attraction. Once you are in emotional alignment with your desired thoughts, you are able to bring them forth into this reality within a matter of days, or weeks. Sometimes months depending on how open you are. Once you are in the Vortex, things seem to come into your life so easily that you become spoiled. When that energy stops, you can feel the difference and do the best you can to get that same feeling back. Abraham Hicks has a wonderful meditation CD called “Getting in the Vortex” that has helped me greatly whenever time began to slow down for me, and I felt like I was stuck. They have also written many books, one of them that will change your life is “Ask and it is Given”. This book seriously changed my life back in 2007. It reminded me of everything Eddie taught me years ago about focusing on positive thoughts, and letting go of resistance of negative thinking. It all has to do with what we think about we bring about. This book along with Abraham Hicks teachings are the reasons why I’ve lived a pretty exciting adventurous life.

Solfeggio Frequencies

What these sounds do is help speed up your vibrational frequency from the dense energy of 3D to a lighter density repairing your DNA, aligning your chakras, enhancing psychic abilities, cellular regeneration, and healing. For too long we been accustomed to listening to lower frequency tunes bringing down the energy of the body or keeping it at a certain low level. I’ve noticed that with certain songs, I will hear sounds coming out of the speaker that sound very foreign to me, as if it were sending out a subliminal vibration into my consciousness. The more aware you become you’ll begin to notice this as well. Is this done deliberately? I can't say for certain, although some conspiracy gurus have mentioned this being widely used in media, movies, commercials, anything to capture the attention and hypnotizing people to buy a certain product, like certain foods for example. With solfeggio-frequencies we deliberately use it to shift our consciousness to help become more aware and feel a oneness that comes during deep meditation. Here are some Frequencies to study so you can bring them into your life during sleep, meditation, magick practices, anytime where you feel you need a lift!

My Great Awakening

396 Hz Liberating oneself of Guilt and Fear

417 Hz Undoing Situations and bringing Change

528 Hz Expanding the heart chakra, bringing in more love, forgiveness returning to Spirituality, helps bring harmony to a chaotic household. DNA Repair

852 Hz Higher Consciousness Mysticism, Psychic development, Clarity, Spiritual Order

936 Hz Pineal Gland Activation, Consciousness, psychic experiences, Astral travel, Connecting with Source

174 Hz removing oneself from a pain emotionally, or physically

639 Hz Bringing harmony into relationship problems

285 Hz Fixing damaged tissue, cuts, burns, restructuring the tissues.

741 Hz Awakening Intuition, Cell Cleanser from toxins, enhances a healthier lifestyle, cleansing oneself of virus, the flu, colds, great remedy!

Where to find these great tones?

You can go to any New Age Store, on YouTube and type solfeggio Frequencies or go to Mysticmountain9 on YouTube. They have great sounds. One of my favorites is Johnathan Goldman "Holy Harmony". Tools you can use to achieve these lovely tunes are the Crystal Bowls, Tibetan Bowls, and Tuning Forks. There are even incense and oils that attune to these frequencies.

The Magic of Chakras

Chakras are dynamic subtle energy vortex that help balance and align the emotional, physical, etheric, mental bodies. When one chakra or more are out of balance the individual will experience some form of illness, or too much or lack of energy in those areas. When an illness arises within the body it is usually because your body is going through certain stresses that it picks up unconsciously. For instance if you keep bumping your elbows against the wall or any object, this means you are getting ready to relocate to another place, according to Louise Hayes book “You Can Heal Your Life”. When I had major tension headaches where it feels like a migraine and I had to make an important decision that day, when I decided to not make a decision, the headache would go away immediately! After becoming more conscious of what my body is trying to tell me, I no longer look at it as an illness that needs medication. Instead, I will look for answers, and talk to my body, go within and see where the problems are coming from. When you are exercising your chakras by bringing them into balance, such as through Yoga, Kundalini, or stretching, you feel very in control, confident, clear minded, energized, invigorated, and become immune to many illnesses. You understand that you are energy and your not just a physical meat suit walking around. By aligning your chakras you align to the life force, universal source, Godhead, whatever you wish to call it. That divine energy when used properly through clear channels can truly manifest amazing experiences.

The Five Rites

These ancient rites are reported to be 2,500 years old published by Peter Kelder in a 1939 publication entitled "The Eye of Revelation" He claimed that during his travels to India he met with a British Soldier who stated that he discovered the "Fountain of Youth" and learned this technique from the lamas in Tibet. According to the booklet, the lamas describe seven spinning, "psychic vortexes" within the body: two of these vortexes are located in the brain, one at the base of the throat, one on the right side of the body in the vicinity of the liver, one in the reproductive anatomy, and one in each knee. As we grow older, the spin rate of the vortexes diminishes, resulting in "ill-health" The spin rate of these vortexes can be fixed when performing these rites very more often. There is a wonderful video that shows you exactly how to do the 5 rites on YouTube. Please search the video titled "The Five Tibetan Rites/ Energy Rejuvenation Exercises 1"

My Great Awakening

Also go to http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Five_Tibetan_Rites for some helpful Diagrams.

Try to do this ritual daily in the morning after you do the LBRP/BRH/ SIRP. The more consistent you are, the quicker you will see your powers strengthen. Practice makes perfect! I will go further into what the LBRP/BRH/ and SIRP rituals are in a later chapter.

Chapter 4 The Power of our Super Conscious Mind

As a Quantum Healing Hypnotherapist trained by the late Dolores Cannon, I've discovered that there is a part of the mind that many hypnotherapists do not speak of. It is actually shunned by conservative hypnotists as they fear the strange and unusual things that happen there. There are four brainwave states of the mind known as your beta, alpha, theta and delta. Hypnotherapy is when you move the client into a relaxed state of mind where their subconscious mind which is the hidden part of the mind becomes very receptive. It is this part of the mind, whatever suggestions you give it, the subconscious mind will take full control of steering the conscious mind into the action desired by the client. The Conscious mind our thinking and objective part of the mind where we are aware of what is going on around us. Here is where we use our five senses of tasting, touching, hearing, smelling, and seeing. We can completely be against something for instance with our conscious mind, but if our subconscious mind is being bombarded with subliminals on a daily basis, from your television, the media, your teachers, parents, the news, opinions of others, your commercials which they tend to play louder than the other programs on TV, your subconscious mind will believe it and therefore steering your conscious mind in the direction that is against your true will. This is why in magick we use ritualistic tools such as colorful candles, fragrance of incense, oils, and sounds of calm music, nature sounds to bring us into a calm relaxed yet receptive mood, so we can steer our conscious mind in the direction we wish by manipulating our own subconscious mind. In other words, it is you who is the captain of your ship, no one else. And you get to tell the crew men what to do and how to move it.

My Great Awakening

Below are the descriptions of what each wave state does:

Beta: is while you are alert and present in the here and now. It is the conscious state of mind where you are awake and walking around. The beta brainwaves are generated while we are in our thinking process, solving solutions, moving around etc.

Alpha: This is the state when you are lightly relaxed and have a calm state of mind. You are in this state of mind while you are daydreaming, where your visualization and imagination run wild. This is the perfect beginning stage of hypnosis where your mind is receptive taking in subliminals or suggestions easily.

Theta: This is the state of deep hypnosis, or in deep meditation where you feel like you are almost falling asleep but you are still in between sleep and wakefulness. It would be considered a catnap relaxation. This is a great state while doing guided meditations, as well as astral traveling where you are conscious that you are dreaming. This is also known as the lucid dreaming state. Here you can also communicate with spiritual forces and do pathworking which we will get into later in this book.

Delta: This is known as the somnambulistic state, and deep healing state of the mind. Here is where the hypnotherapist can communicate with the superconscious or universal mind which has all of the answers available to you. This is also known by many other names, such as the God force, the Higher Self, the Guardian Angel, or the Great I am presence. When I take my subjects to their past lives, it is very difficult for them to make it all up by allowing the conscious mind or ego to get in the way. I've experienced this state a few times while under Quantum Healing Hypnosis and I can tell you, it is a whole other world from your average hypnosis which is in your alpha or theta state. This is the part where your soul takes over to access the

My Great Awakening

Akashic records of the universal mind for our deepest quest for hidden truths. This is also the place to heal your body. I can tell you an interesting story that happened to me a few years ago where I was suffering from a horrible eye symptom called Corneal Erosion. Every morning when I would open my eyes, my right eye lid would be glued to my eyeball. The pain was absolutely excruciating that I would be in tears. The eye doctor couldn't fix this problem and nothing that I seem to do such as changing my diet would help the problem. So finally, in my most desperate need I called my QHHT friend Yvette Menendez to help me with this recurring problem. After one session with her, since then the corneal erosion problem went away. It never came back! This is the power of the mind when you are in this most receptive state. You not only are able to visit your past lives or heal your body, you can also create the world you desire by astral traveling and manipulating your current reality. This is the power of the Magickian. Sure, you can do this by contacting your nearest QHHT Practitioner, even Clinical Hypnotherapist where they can move you into the Theta state of the mind which is just as powerful, or you can go within yourself through deep meditation, or hearing a repetitive sound such as drumming, or Tibetan bowls that will bring you into this state of mind. Here is where you move into your fully conscious I Am God/dess self. This is where the magick begins. If you would like to learn more about Quantun Healing Hypnotherapy, visit www.dolorescannon.com and you find many of her amazing books she wrote of her case studies of her clients when they went under and had been healed using this sacred method. You can also sign up for one of her workshops in person or online. I suggest that many of you who are on the path to becoming a powerful magickian, should learn more about QHHT and possibly get certified. This may also help your students in the future when they are going through major traumas from either this life or their past life, to release them so they can move forward.
